FROM THE E-MAIL EXPLAINING THE SOS REDESIGN MEETINGS WITH THE ADULT MENTAL HEALTH INITIATIVES "The outcomes of the meetings are aimed at involving consumers and their families, providers, hospitals, law enforcement, counties and other stakeholders in the process and decisions that need to be made in redesigning SOS in light of the legislation and budget pressures currently mandating increased service efficiency. The meetings will be focused on enhanced outcomes for those served which could be achieved through redesign and which rely on maximizing community resources and reliance on appropriate roles for SOS. Innovation, systems change and creative partnerships with community providers and stakeholders involved will be cornerstones of a successful redesign."
